

Vermont Tracking Data & Metadata

Data

At the broadest level, data on the Vermont Tracking Portal come from various state and national sources, depending on the particular topic.

Topic	Source
Air Quality	Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation
Asthma Hospitalizations and Emergency Department Visits	Green Mountain Care Board
Birth Defects	Vermont Department of Health – Birth Information Network
Cancer	Vermont Department of Health – Cancer Registry
Carbon Monoxide Poisoning Mortality	Vermont Department of Health – Vital Statistics System
Carbon Monoxide Poisoning Hospitalizations and Emergency Department Visits	Green Mountain Care Board
Drinking Water – Public	Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation
Drinking Water – Private	Vermont Department of Health Laboratory and Vermont Geological Survey
Heart Attack Hospitalizations and Emergency Department Visits	Green Mountain Care Board
Heat Stress Mortality	Vermont Department of Health – Vital Statistics System
Heat Stress Hospitalizations and Emergency Department Visits	Green Mountain Care Board
Housing	U.S. Bureau of the Census – Year 2000
Childhood Lead Poisoning	Vermont Department of Health – Lead Surveillance System
Poverty	U.S. Bureau of the Census – Year 2000

Vermont Tracking Data & Metadata

Radon, Smoking, and Lung Cancer	Vermont Department of Health – Radon Indoor Air Program, BRFSS Survey and Vermont Cancer Registry
Reproductive Health	Vermont Department of Health – Vital Statistics System, U.S. Bureau of the Census
Vulnerability Indicators – Social Vulnerability Index and Heat Vulnerability Index	U.S. Bureau of the Census – American Community Survey

Metadata

Metadata are "data about data." Metadata describe the content, quality, and context of a dataset and provide links to additional information such as quality assurance documents and data dictionaries.

Details about how the data were collected and statistics calculated are described in metadata documents on the Vermont Tracking Portal.

Search Metadata